PICTURE A LARGE 1,000 PERSON “big top” on the field! Is this an illusion or a reality for Malvern Retreat House?

It’s a reality for Sunday, October 7th from 12 noon to 7:30 PM; an event for individuals and families featuring an all-star line-up of speakers and musicians. Officially endorsed by Archbishop Charles A. Chaput, this is the first annual Tent Revival at the retreat house.

As a FREE rain or shine event, it has created quite a stir in the Catholic community in the Mid-Atlantic region. “We are busy raising the funds through special sponsorships including businesses, individuals, organizations and families. We didn’t want cost to detract people from attending and receiving the special graces of this event. This is why we made the decision to open our doors in making it a FREE event for all,” shared Michael Norton, Vice-President of Institution Advancement. The mission is to provide an outreach to those seeking a deeper relationship with the Lord, a fuller understanding of the church and, an opportunity to encounter joy, hope, mercy and healing.

The tent was secured in late 2017; Advanced Staging Productions, a professional lighting, staging and audio production company stepped forward to assist Malvern in bringing this joyful event to fruition. Steve Wildemann, President of Advanced Staging Productions is a Man of Malvern and offered the expertise of his team for our efforts. The speakers confirmed their involvement without hesitation including Deacon

Mark's Musings from Malvern

Dear Friends,

The longevity of commitment demonstrated by many of our retreatants is amazing! This spring during the Archbishop Fitzmaurice retreat weekend, I caught up with Lou Twardowski. Lou was in the midst of his 79th retreat. He was happy to be here, but wondered if he would have the strength and energy to return for his 80th year. His brother retreatants are making plans to ensure that Lou gets to our grounds in 2019 – he is a long-standing example of the value of making a retreat. His perseverance and love of the Lord is inspiring! Imagine this: in 1912, the Retreat League began at St. Charles Seminary; moved to our current location in 1921 (the year Lou was born!); and Lou made his first retreat in 1939. His experience as a retreatant spans 75% of our history! Wow!

While we offer a variety of retreat opportunities, the Men and Women of Malvern remain at the core of our 106-year history. At the same time, the reality of our culture has vastly changed over the past 30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80 years. Lou can provide personal testimony about this! That is why we continue to embrace our traditional retreats while at the same time we look for new ways to invite people to these holy grounds so that they, too, might experience a Divine encounter with Christ.

Attending a retreat on a regular basis has strengthened Lou's faith, made him a better husband and father, and helped him to be the man God made him to be. He would be the first to tell how much he wants others to have this experience. Now, more than ever, we are facing challenging times in society as well as within the Church. Secularism has become the unofficial religion of our time. The scandal of sin and unfaithfulness among some of the clergy and hierarchy cause us pain and distract us from the Gospel message. Our democracy appears topsy-turvy, and our political leaders often disappoint. We need joy and hope.

A bold way of reaching people with the Good News is through our first Catholic Tent Revival. Please mark your calendar for October 7, 2018 for our first Catholic Tent Revival: THE JOY OF JESUS! HIS MERCY. HIS LOVE. It will be an historic event with a thousand person tent on our grounds and a stage that will fill the open air with powerful preaching and moving music focused on drawing multitudes into a closer relationship with Jesus. When I spoke to him about this event a few months ago, Archbishop Charles Chaput endorsed it by saying, “The idea of a Catholic tent revival is a good one. I hope it's very successful.” His words are so encouraging because he understands the great need for extraordinary evangelization in the Church to reach folks who we would not ordinarily see at Mass on Sundays or even here on retreat.

This revival is one means of injecting “new wine into new wineskins” so that we can experience renewed strength, to become disciples on fire for Jesus. God calls us to be a living example that will attract others to the true message of the Gospel so that they might know the healing, joy, and peace that comes from a life in Christ.

Prosit,

Office Relocation Completed

On Tuesday July, 24 the second floor Cabrey staff moved over to the second floor of St. Joseph's Hall. We are very thankful to the amazing team from Business Move Solution, Inc. for their strong backs and quick feet. Their physical efforts were supported by our partners at CTN Solutions and Agile Networks who coordinated the installation of a VoIP phone system and managed to get all our computers and printers up and running again – all in the same day!

Between packing, unpacking and training for the new systems we were very blessed to have had so little “downtime”. It was through the herculean efforts of these great vendors and our own amazing maintenance crew that everyone is starting to settle into their new “home”. With so many positive attitudes, a spirit of collaboration, and lots of patience and fortitude the move was a fun experience! We hope this move working in closer proximity will bring enhanced efficiency and communication to our Malvern mission. The great work of Malvern doesn't sit with any one person or department, but is possible only because we pull together as a team.

A special thanks to Geraldine McCann who coordinated the entire move.

Rector's Reflection

A Journey through the Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer offers us a marvelous summary of prayer and life in Christ. The Carmelite Fr. Robert McNamara has suggested that while we pray the words of Jesus as He taught, we experience their meaning starting at the end and working toward the beginning, one phrase at a time. Each phrase is a step in spiritual maturity. At times, we move forwards, at other times we slide backwards. With which phrase of the Lord's Prayer do you see yourself experiencing right now? Realizing this, you are ready to take the next step.

As you read the following meditations, I invite you to begin by repeating the phrase several times, in time with your breathing. Let it relax you and help you focus on what lies ahead and within.

Deliver us from evil, especially the evil that looks good to us. Let us not be distracted by what others do but focus on our own need for liberation.

Lead us not into temptation so that my temptations become like my shadow, which shows me where light can be found.

Give us this day our daily bread as we trust in You to give us all that we really need and to take from us whatever we love more than You. All that you send our way today is bread for us, food for our faith, hope, and love. We starve not from lack of Your giving but from failing to accept all that You offer and in the way that You offer it.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven by us through obedience to Your Word and Grace as revealed to us in the Scriptures and the teaching of the Church. Without obedience to You we cannot claim to love You. Without dedication to the study of Your teaching we cannot hope to be useful to You. Heaven is where Your will is fully and lovingly done. Hell is where selfishness and self-destruction reign.

Thy Kingdom come through us who pray these words. You choose us to be instruments of Your Kingdom and collaborators in the establishment of a New Creation, just as the saints in former times. Let Your vision and values color our thinking, feeling, relating, acting and being in the world.

Hallowed be Thy name in a world where the names of the rich, famous, and powerful are too highly regarded. May we honor Your name in deed as well as in word.

Who art in heaven and for us, Your presence is a taste of heaven on earth. Like a fish needs water and trees need their roots deep in the earth, so Your presence is our natural habitat.

Our Father by Baptism, Who desires to be a loving father to all humanity, may we live in awareness of Your awesome love and care and also our call to live in such a way that others will know Your loving presence by the things we say and do.

Prosit!

Sudden Death of Recruitment Mgr., Robert Moore

Our deepest condolences are extended to the Moore family, the Men of Malvern and staff in the loss of a truly devoted Man of Malvern.

Robert Joseph Moore, of Norristown and a former resident of Lansdowne, passed away on Monday June 25, 2018. He was 73 years old. Born December 24, 1944 in Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Matthew Thomas and Frances Marion (nee Brady) and the beloved husband of Margaret Ann (nee Morris) with whom he shared 49 years of marriage. Bob was proud to be a graduate of Roman Catholic High School, class of '63. Bob was a US Navy Veteran and was stationed on board the USS Robert E. Lee Submarine. He earned his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting from St. Joseph's University in 1974. Bob embarked on a very successful career in accounting until his retirement in 2017 after which he served as a recruiter for his beloved Malvern Retreat House. He was very active in the Catholic Church and was an avid fan of the Eagles and Phillies. Bob enjoyed spending time with his family at the beach along the Jersey shore. In addition to his wife Margaret, Bob is survived by his eight children; Mary Elizabeth O'Connor (John), Joseph Lawrence (Jessica), Robert James (Jennifer), Amy Catherine Houston (Alexander), Kevin Bernard (Keri), Megan Theresa Moore, Ann Maureen Moore, and Alicia Christine Kukoski (Nicholas), 21 grandchildren, three great grandchildren, his sister Margaret Ann Smith and brother Thomas Matthew Moore (Nancy).

New Associates Hired for Key Positions

Armando Moral joined our team on August 27 as the new Recruitment Manager. He will assume the responsibilities left vacant by Bob Moore's sudden and unexpected death. Most importantly, he will focus on the relationship with and increasing enrollment for our traditional Men of Malvern retreats. Armando has more than 20 years experience as a retreatant here at MRH. He has been a Board member for two years, and has contributed to our apostolate through his participation on the Retreat Committee, Pilot Committee, and Property Committee. He will resign from the Board prior to assuming this new role. This is a part-time position.

Chris J. Bouvier recently joined our team in a part-time role as Director of Technology. Chris comes to MRH after a long history of corporate experience as the Chief Technology Officer for various organizations. In addition, he has volunteered with several churches and faith-based organizations, including MRH, prior to moving into this new role. With our increased reliance upon technology, we needed someone with Chris' experience and breadth of knowledge to keep MRH on the right track with a comprehensive technology plan.

Dylan Canada is the newest member of the maintenance team, headed by Bob Eagan. Dylan is a welcomed addition with experience as a combat medic in the National Guard for seven years; being awarded Medals of Achievement. He has experience in HVAC and plumbing; is EMT-certified. He loves spending time with his family, praying Sacred Scripture, working on trucks and weight training.

10TH ANNUAL Malvern Golf Classic

May 7, 2018

The Lord blessed us with a picture perfect day for our 10th Annual Malvern Golf Classic at Cedarbrook Country Club in Blue Bell, PA. Over 100 men and women came to play some serious (not so serious in some cases) golf in support of our beloved retreat house. Best of all, a portion of the proceeds went to help fund the retreats for formerly homeless men and formally homeless women who are transitioning back into normal society. Regardless of the scores, everyone went home a winner. Information on the 11th Annual Golf Classic will be coming soon.

Annual Appeal | HELP ME IF YOU CAN!

Walking our beautiful grounds today, the old Beatles song Help runs through my mind. I know what you are thinking, what do the Beatles have to do with Malvern Retreat House?

Clearly Malvern provides Help to all who come on retreat, but I was thinking more about our buildings as I sang the words:

Yes, St. Joseph's in the Hills needs your help. Our marvelous old buildings are costing more and more to maintain, but you can help.

Recently, you received our Annual Appeal Letter. Our goal is to raise $350,000. Doing so would Help relieve the financial burden of rising maintenance costs. As you read the letter, I ask that you think back on all the help you received while on retreat.

Oh won't you please,
please help me?

Gary Zimak, radio host on Holy Spirit radio, author and evangelist specializes in messages of hope; living stress-free in a world filled with anxiety.

The newest member of the team is Vanessa Hamm, Chief Catalyst and Transformation Specialist of Accendi Solutions. She offers an international flair to her business presentation called IGNITE.

The cost is minimal for parishes or organizations; many times, it is appropriate for a free-will offering for the retreat speaker.

"We are available to all parishes, businesses, universities and organizations in providing a quick spiritual solution to those needing a spiritual B-12 shot. Our retreat team will come to your place of ministry or work. Sheepishly, many people ask, "What is the cost?" ### Ask Me About My Retreat Campaign

Custom T-shirts are being ordered for CA Captains and recruiters for The Catholic Tent Revival on October 7.

The T-shirts will be a visible means of identifying the men and women of Malvern Retreat House; a point of conversation or inquiry about our retreats. In addition, the T-shirts may be taken home as a gift. CA Captains, please be sure to register for the Tent Revival online and notify Tara McCormick (tmccormick@malvernretreat.com) if you wish to wear a T-shirt.

Ad Lumina Christi Retreat Returns

This year Fr. Dermot Roache, SMA will be co-directing the retreat with her. As a team, they will be preaching the Word of God on extraordinary levels. Every Mass will be a healing service with Fr. Roache and Kathleen. This is an opportunity for a life-changing experience.

Bob Moore Memorial Blessing Fund Created

The new altar for Upper McShain is nearing completion.

ROBERT "BOB" MOORE WAS AN extraordinary man. As a 30-year retreatant, Bob retired from his corporate management career in late 2017 to begin his work at Malvern as the Recruitment Manager.

His goal was to raise the level of the Men of Malvern to 10,000 and, on a daily basis; he reminded the staff of this goal. He was determined to make this goal during his tenure with the retreat house working closely with the CA Captains, the staff and visiting parishes on weekend.

Those who knew Bob well understood his desire for privacy in providing countless retreats to men and women who could not afford a retreat. Reaching into his pocket, he would discreetly pay for someone in a financial crisis; after all, he knew the power of a retreat and its life-changing effects. He was the first CA Captain of the Divine Mercy Retreat initiated in 2006 and consistently attended other retreats throughout the year.

As a way of honoring Bob and his family, his desire to enhance the legacy of the retreat house, we are initiating the Bob Moore Memorial Blessing Fund. Monies donated for this purpose will be utilized to help renew Upper McShain creating a newer, brighter space of worship. Master carpenter Bob Perricone is building a new altar for Upper McShain to be dedicated in Bob Moore's memory. May your response to this appeal put an exclamation point on how Bob lived and served the Lord!
