“Those who sincerely say ‘Jesus, I trust in You’ will find comfort from all their anxieties and fears.” St. Pope John Paul II

In these times of crises & confusion, re-focus on growing in TRUST in God's Infinite Mercy on this Divine Mercy Weekend Retreat which will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, Spiritual Conferences, Reconciliation, Silency & Devotions including the Rosary & Divine Mercy chaplet. It will culminate with the Feast of the Divine Mercy Sunday! Experience the peaceful grounds of Malvern Retreat House this Spring while receiving the promises of grace revealed in the Diary of St. Faustina. This is a co-ed Retreat & will be held in Upper McShain. In-person retreatants will stay at Our Lady's Hall, single rooms & shared bathrooms.

$275 in-person & $75 for virtual!

Check-in begins @ 4 PM Friday night & the Retreat ends after 3 PM at the end Divine Mercy Devotions Sunday.

Reverend Stephen P.J. DeLacy, ordained in 2004, serves as the Vicar of Faith Formation for Youth and Young Adults in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He was formerly the Director of the Vocation Office for the Diocesan Priesthood. His dynamic witness to the Gospel through his preaching and joyful approach to living the Christian Vocation has made him a popular presenter. He has been with the Divine Mercy Retreat since its inception and back again once more.

Reverend Dermot Roache is Vocation Director of the Society of African Missions (SMA Fathers). He completed his formation & STB from Catholic University of Eastern Africa, was a missionary in Kenya & northern South Africa serving “the poorest of the poor.” It is there on mission, the prayer “Act of Consecration of the Family to the Divine Mercy” was given to him by Our Lord, which is a universal mission. This will be his third year as Retreat Director.

Kathleen McCarthy has been a Catholic lay evangelist for almost 40 years. She is a published author and Catholic radio broadcaster. As an internationally sought-after conference speaker, she shares with enthusiasm and motivates many hearts to Experience God. She will be with our retreat Saturday evening for Mass and the Healing Service.
